Don't miss this well maintained 3 bedroom, 2 bath beauty located in the desirable Granada Hills neighborhood. The home features a stucco Spanish style architecture with arches and is built back off the street allowing for extra privacy. To the left of the front door is a nice front shady porch. Inside, the large kitchen area has room for dining/family room with a slider to the outside and interior access from the two car garage. The spacious carpeted living room has a pretty stone fireplace and sliding glass doors to the backyard. The primary bedroom faces the front and has a tiled walk in shower. The generous lot includes fruit trees and gardening areas with a patio that is ideal for entertaining outside. There are also backyard steps up to the top of the lot where a landing has a view of the surrounding hills and a distant view of the Bay. Conveniently located to major freeways, shopping centers and borders the nearby town of Benicia.
